An expression of interest was issued in January 2008 inviting applications from qualified and experienced experts. The response to the EOI is one of the inputs into this ToR/activity and a basis of reference for short listing of consultants.

The consultants will provide expert consultancy services and advisory services based on their technical skills and knowledge, past experiences, capabilities and expertise to support the various thematic areas of the 7th Country Programme.

The Service Provider will prequalify and build up a database of individual consultants, NGOs, CSOs, Consulting firms, organisations for the following contract modalities:

- Reimbursable Loan Agreement (RLA) for organisations to release their staff for consultancy services
- Institutional Services Contract for organisations to provide services less than $30,000
- Professional Services Contract for organisations to provide services more than $30,000

The database will enable UNDP Nigeria Country Office to expedite the identification and selection process of consultants by providing easy access to a pool of screened and pre-qualified contractors (individuals/firms) with the relevant track record and the required expertise.

Objectives of Assignment

To achieve these objectives mentioned above, UNDP requires experienced firms or institutions preferably recruitment firms to review the current EOI process and if necessary, re-advertise and expand the field of interest in line with UNDP Nigeria's core areas.

Scope of work

- Review and ascertain the status of work done in the EOI advertised in January 2008.
- Identify weaknesses /strength of the process. If applicable:
  - Expand the field of interest based on core areas contained in the 7th Country Programme
  - Re-advertise the EOI based on above
- Develop and agree a screening criteria with UNDP
- Review applications received from interested consultants and firms
- Produce a prioritised shortlist of individuals and Institutions for core programme areas based on qualifications and experience and the agreed screening criteria
- Interview consultants and consulting firms shortlisted to confirm qualification, experience and capabilities for undertaking UNDP consultancies
- Develop a final list of consultants/firms indicating areas of expertise, including qualifications and experience and their availability for short/medium/long term assignments.
- Customise the list and details of the selected consultants/firms into a database format compatible with UNDP's web based roster to enable uploading of the information.

Methodology

The process will comprise desk review of current process and documents relating to previous EOI advertised, consultations with Team Leaders and key staff to understand requirements for consultancies in terms of knowledge, skills, competencies and other considerations for developing a user friendly database.
