Project Description:

The project is designed to support capacity development initiatives through training, technical assistance and consultancy services to national and sub-national Governments in Nigeria to support the response to the avian influenza crisis. The UNDP response is part of the larger UN Country Team response. UNDP response specifically focuses on strengthening governance structures, responding to the socio-economic impact of the crisis, and strengthening the community mobilization component of crisis.

Output:

- Federal, State and local level governance capacities developed to combat the Avian Influenza Crisis
- The in-house capacity of UNDP strengthened to respond to the crisis and intra-UN procedures strengthened to move the UN towards a joint program in responding to the crisis
